Fourth Sunday of Advent

Volume 43 – Number 51

---

“Behold, the Virgin shall conceive and bear a son and they shall name him Emmanuel, which means, ‘God is with Us’.”

Dear Friends,

On the Feast of Christmas we celebrate one of the greatest gifts God gives us, the Incarnation. We proclaim, as Isaiah did many years ago, “God is with us” and I believe our only response can be to give praise and worship to our God. Each year during the season of Christmas we are invited to renew our faith in God’s love for us. I believe God is inviting us in a special way to recommit ourselves not only to profess our faith in Jesus Christ, but to live out our faith more faithfully and to be a beacon of hope for others. I invite you to come and give thanks to God for giving us His Son, Jesus Christ, as our way of Salvation. Our Christmas Mass schedule is:

Vigil Mass: Monday, December 24th at 4:00 PM and 6:00 PM

Christmas Day: Tuesday, December 25th at 9:00 AM

As I reflect on the gift of the Incarnation, I thank God often for sending His Son and for allowing me the grace to recognize Him in the generosity and faithfulness of the people of St. Charles Borromeo Church. During this season of Christmas I pray that our faith continue to grow and that we come to a deep awareness of God’s love for us. On behalf of Fr. Glenn, Deacon Brent, the entire Staff of St. Charles Borromeo and myself, I pray God’s blessing be with you and your family this Christmas Season and may the New Year bring you grace and happiness.

In Christ,
Rev. Carl P. Collins
