"They were filled with jealousy."

(Acts 13:45)

Did you know that the Greek word for "jealousy" is the same word for "zeal"? There is a fine line, it seems, between the two emotions.

Jealousy arises when we see someone else enjoying something we wish we had. Zeal, on the other hand, arises out of a desire to see other people enjoy something we know to be good and desirable. Jealousy is self-focused, while zeal is other-focused.

This distinction can help us understand the reaction of some of the Jews in the synagogue at Pisidia Antioch. They had become jealous at the sight of a large crowd gathering to hear Paul and Barnabas preach. It upset them to see these out-of-towners receiving so much attention and not them. All we ever get is harassment and discrimination. Then these two men arrive, and they attract an admiring crowd—of Gentiles no less!

This is the way of jealousy. As we see someone enjoying something desirable, our desire for that object grows. If we're not careful, our desire can turn into resentment toward that person. And our resentment can grow so intense that our focus shifts from the object to the person we have become jealous of. It's why Cain killed Abel. It's why David killed Uriah. It's why some Pharisees hated Jesus. And it's why these Jews heaped "violent abuse" on Paul and Barnabas (Acts 13:45).

The best way to overcome this kind of jealousy is to ask God to help you turn the tables on it. Practice zealous generosity instead. Rather than grasping after what someone else has, give them the gift of your prayers. Rather than turning against them, try to be happy that they are enjoying whatever it is you wanted for yourself. Stifle any self-focused jealousy by smothering it with other-focused love and compassion.

Jealousy doesn't have to control you. You can control it—through God's grace.

"Jesus, help me to count my own blessings and to bless everyone around me."
